PART ONE : READING COMPREHENSION (8 points)

Read the text below and do all the activities that follow it.

FOOD IS THE KEY TO LIFE

Whatever your opinion about food, you need it to live. You need the right kinds of food in the right amounts to have a healthy life. Your needs for different kinds of foods change as you grow older. Everyone needs the three key nutrients that are necessary for the body: carbohydrates, fats and proteins. Unfortunately, in our world today, not everyone has access to all of these all the time. World hunger is a global problem that needs to be addressed by all nations.

The right kinds of foods the body needs to develop and stay healthy are not known by everyone. A good, daily, balanced diet is key to a healthy life. Do you have a balanced diet? Do you know what you eat every day? Why do you think you eat the foods you eat? Eating the right food every day, not only nourishes our body, but it also nourishes our spirits, our creativity and thinking and our language and interaction with other people.

About 25 years ago, being thin was in fashion. So many people ate salads or went on diets to lose weight. In fact, at that time, there used to be an obsession with being on diet. Now, however, being on diet may not be necessary. There are so many foods out in the stores for people to use in order to lose weight. There are even substances that can help you to lose weight even if you eat all you want.

Dear,

I have read in a newspaper that you are member of a Non Governmental Organisation (NGO) that takes care of abandoned children. I am member of an NGO like yours too, but we don't have much experience.

So please, tell me more about

- the different types of food you give to the children.
- the way they spend one day.
- what they become when they leave your organisation.

I am waiting for your help.

Your friend.
